

After January 1st Patrician Shoes Will Be Sold at 11 West Broad Street.

Look Prosperous.

In commenting on Success and how to command it, one everywhere meets the advice, "Look Prosperous."

Mary Garden, the famous prima donna, even advocates denying oneself food in order to dress well—if need be.

"PATRICIAN" Shoes for Women are one of the many American products which are to-day sold so reasonably and made so well as to make American people notably the best dressed of civilized nations. Significant also—they are the most prosperous.

"PATRICIAN" are made to feel well, wear well and look well.

Prosperous women everywhere wear "PATRICIAN" Shoes.

Error in Date.

An error has been made in the announcement of the date of the Thanksgiving dinner to be held in Assembly Hall, Barton Heights. It will take place Friday evening, November 27th, at 8:30 o'clock, with the following ladies as chaperones: Mrs. John E. Rose, Mrs. Walter D. Crowth, Mrs. William Christian, Mrs. John Price and Mrs. C. G. Shaffer.

Dr. Jagger at Club.
Members of Woman's Club have a treat in store for the evening of November 30th, when Dr. T. A. Jagger, son of Bishop Jagger, of Boston, well known and greatly beloved in Richmond, will deliver before them a lecture on "Earthquakes" in the Jefferson Hotel Auditorium at 8:30 o'clock.

Dr. Jagger is accounted the leading geologist of America, and was sent by the United States government to visit Mt. Pelee in eruption, the island of Martinique and scenes of other great seismic disturbances. He is a professor of Harvard, and occupies the chair of geology in Boston School of Technology. The lecture will be illustrated by stereopticon views of volcanoes in eruption.

Each member of Woman's Club is allowed two extra tickets, which they can have on application at the club.

Mrs. W. D. Thomas, No. 113 East Grace Street, is chairman of the evening.

Whist Club to Meet.

The Kate Wheelock Whist Club will meet Tuesday afternoon, November 24th, at 5:30 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. L. W. Glazebrook, No. 208 West Main Street.

Engagement Announced.

The Rev. Dr. Gilby C. Kelly, pastor of Broad Street Methodist Episcopal Church, and Mrs. Kelly announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia Carroll, to Mr. Howell Colson Featherston, of Lynchburg, the wedding to take place in January.

Miss Kelly is a cultured example of lovely young Southern womanhood and a great social favorite in Richmond. Mr. Featherston is the son of Hon. H. C. Featherston, of Lynchburg, and a member of the State Legislature from Campbell county. The announcement is one of widespread interest.

Converse—Lay.

The wedding of Miss Caroline McCaw Lay to Mr. Henry A. Converse, Ph. D., of Johns Hopkins University, will be quietly celebrated on November 25th, in the home of the bride, No. 100 North Monroe Street.

Dr. Converse, who is a native of Harrisonburg, Va., is a member of the faculty of Johns Hopkins University. Miss Lay is a daughter of Mr. David Lay and a granddaughter of the late Judge John Lay. Dr. and Mrs. Converse, after their wedding trip, will reside in Baltimore.

Freeshing—Henderson.

An approaching marriage of unusual interest throughout Virginia is that of Miss Annie Elizabeth Henderson, of Blacksburg, to Mr. Henry Charles Froehling, of this city. The bride-to-be is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Knox Henderson, and has been since her debut a few years ago, one of the most popular young society ladies of Southwest Virginia. She has also made numerous friends in various places she has visited.

Mr. Froehling is a graduate of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and for several years has been engaged in business in Birmingham, Ala., but is now associated with his father in this city, where he and his bride will make their future home.

McElhane—Dulany.

Of special interest to Richmond and Virginia society will be the wedding of Miss Rebecca Dulany, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dulany, to Mr. Frederick McElhane, announced for December 23d, at "Grafton Hall," the handsome Dulany home in Loudoun county. Miss Dulany and her sister, Miss Terry Dulany, have been exhibitors at various Virginia horse shows and belles at White Sulphur Springs. The grandfather of the bride-to-be, the late Colonel Richard Dulany, was the originator of the Virginia horse show.

Gray—Smith.

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Smith, of Ripley, Fauquier county, announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Lou, to Mr. Alexander Gray, Jr., of Fauquier, the wedding to be celebrated December 15th.

Rawlings—Williams.

The wedding of Miss Louella Williams, sister of the Rev. Dr. Aubrey Williams, pastor of the Fredericksburg Baptist Church, to Mr. James R. Rawlings, will be celebrated Wednesday, November 25th, at 2 P. M., in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Van Buren, of No. 612 West Grace Street. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Williams.

A Thanksgiving Sale of Fashionable Millinery at Cut Prices

This means several hundred Trimmed Hats, all this season's prominent shapes, have to stand the blue pencil mark.

Many of highest grades will be marked EXACTLY ONE-HALF of the former prices, and to make the sale doubly interesting, $5.00 all hats marked up to $12.50 will be

In many cases the untrimmed hat cost that much. These are the very best values offered so far this season and should make hat selling here tomorrow a genuine revelation.

An inspection will satisfy the most skeptical that this is the money-saving event of the season in millinery history.

I Can Increase Your Sales

Each business has different characteristics, but every business has two factors exactly alike---Selling and Expense

¶ There are two ways to sell—one by the human voice and the other by advertising.

¶ Selling by the first method is limited.

¶ When you use advertising your selling scope is increased wonderfully—the exact ratio depending only on the kind of copy you use, the medium you employ and your ability to supply a sure demand.

If I do not continue to write your ads after you give me a chance to demonstrate what I can do for you, it'll be my fault.
